PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Community of Our Lady of Perpetual Help,

“God did not make death ...” Wisdom

God never wanted death for us. He made us for eternal life. But the devil seduced man and woman to want to be like God. This decision brought sin into the world. Selfishness, hatred, division, violence entered the paradise God wanted for us. The mystery of suffering came to be a part of our existence.

“God formed man to be imperishable ... the image of His own nature He made him ... by the envy of the devil ... death entered the world ...” Wisdom

God did not abandon us, He came to our rescue. Jesus came to be one with us. He entered our misery. With His love and wisdom, He reopened the doors of eternal life for all of us.

“Christ for your sake became poor ... so that by His poverty you might become rich ...” 2 Corinthians

“Our Savior Jesus Christ destroyed death and brought life to light through the Gospel ...” 2 Timothy

Our Lord Jesus Christ calls to us like He called the little girl in the Gospel.

“I say to you ... arise! ...” Mark

He calls us to victory over every kind of death, and eventually will call us to life eternal.

Monsignor Lorenzo

Deacon's Corner

My brothers and sisters,

The story that the gospel tells us today has an impressive detail. It impressed Jesus, the apostles, especially impressed a woman. It is a miracle that Christ performed, on the way, while on the road to bring life to Jairus's daughter. A sick woman thought that by just touching Jesus' robe she would be healed. She did touch it and she was healed.

The impressive detail is that Jesus felt that touch of the woman's hand. A lot of people surrounded Jesus, many touched him with curiosity, some touched him inadvertently. But that woman touched Jesus with faith. More than twenty centuries ago, Jesus allowed himself to be touched and today he continues to let himself be touched by many.

Blessings, Deacon Carlos

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

SAFETY TRUMPS GOOD MANNERS

As parents/caregivers, we teach children to say "please" and "thank you," to play nicely, and to respect other adults. It is also key to stress the importance of safety, and let children know that it is okay to be impolite if they feel threatened or scared. Children should know that it's okay to say "NO" if someone is asking them to do something they don't feel comfortable doing, and that setting boundaries by saying things like -- "Don't touch me there," or "I don't like that" -- are not rude, but in fact necessary for their safety.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

In order to keep our class sizes small, the Confirmation program is seeking experienced teachers and teacher assistants.

Training, support and teaching materials are provided.

FAITH IS TO BELIEVE

Placing our faith and trust in God, whom we cannot see, is not always easy. We wonder why suffering exists and question the meaning of life and our purpose in the world. We wonder if God is really present during the most challenging of life circumstances; we sometimes experience spiritual dryness, in which God seems distant or absent. At times, we may feel strong in faith, until a situation at home or work requires us to act as a person of faith, and suddenly faith is no longer easy, convenient, or comfortable. These moments are so common that we speak of taking a “leap of faith,” when we act out of faith, even when the result of doing so is uncertain. Such a leap is often a turning point in our lives, as we find strength, healing and peace in turning our burdens and anxieties over to God in trust. Saint Augustine said, “Faith is to believe what you do not see. The result of this faith is to see what you believe.”

THE RESULT OF FAITH

As we grow in faith, we come to believe that God is always with us, through the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit and the sacramental life of the Church, especially the Eucharist. We are assured of God’s presence in quiet moments of prayer and experiences of the kindness, care, and compassion of others. We “see what we believe” through all of these encounters with Christ’s love. These experiences lead us to praise and thank God for our many blessings, and to reach out to others so that, through us, they may also encounter Christ’s undying love. Through all of this, we grow in our willingness to share our many gifts with others, especially the faith that makes such a difference in our lives.

And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to Him must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who earnestly seek Him.

Hebrews 11:6

FE ES CREER

Poner nuestra fe y confianza en Dios, a quien no podemos ver, no siempre es fácil. Nos preguntamos por qué el sufrimiento existe y preguntamos cuál es el sentido de la vida y nuestro propósito en el mundo. Nos preguntamos si Dios está realmente presente durante las circunstancias más desafiantes de nuestra vida; algunas veces experimentamos un desierto espiritual, en el que Dios parece estar distante o ausente. Otras veces, nos podemos sentir fuertes en la fe, hasta que una situación en la casa o el trabajo requiere de nosotros actuar como una persona de fe, y de repente la fe ya no es algo fácil, conveniente o cómoda. Estos momentos son tan comunes que hablamos de hacer “un salto de fe”, cuando lo que hacemos lo hacemos por fe, aun cuando el resultado de hacerlo es incierto. Ese salto a menudo es un punto de inflexión a nuestras vidas, pues encontramos fortaleza, sanación y paz al poner nuestras cargas y ansiedades con confianza en Dios. San Agustín dijo “la fe es creer aquello que no ves. El resultado de esta fe es ver aquello que crees”.

EL RESULTADO DE LA FE

Al ir creciendo nuestra fe, llegamos a creer que Dios siempre está con nosotros, a través de la presencia interna del Espíritu Santo y la vida sacramental de la Iglesia, especialmente la Eucaristía. Estamos seguros de la presencia de Dios en momentos tranquilos de oración y experimentamos la bondad, el cuidado y la compasión por nuestros prójimos. “Vemos lo que creemos” por medio de todos esos encuentros con el amor de Cristo. Estas experiencias nos guían a alabar y a agradecer a Dios por nuestras bendiciones, y para llegar a otras personas para que, por medio de nosotros, ellas también puedan tener un encuentro con el amor eterno de Cristo. Por medio de todo esto, crecemos en nuestra disposición para compartir nuestros muchos dones con los demás, especialmente la fe que hace una diferencia en nuestras vidas.

COLUMNA DEL PASTOR

Querida Comunidad de Nuestra Señora del Perpetuo Socorro,

“Dios no hizo la muerte ...” Sabiduría

Dios nunca quiso la muerte para nosotros. El nos hizo para la vida eterna. Pero el demonio sedujo al hombre y a la mujer a desear ser como Dios. Esta decisión trajo el pecado al mundo. El egoísmo, el odio, la división, la violencia entraron al Paraíso que Dios creó para nosotros. El misterio del sufrimiento llegó a ser parte de nuestra existencia.

“Dios creó al hombre para que nunca muriera ... porque lo hizo a imagen y semejanza de Si mismo ... por envidia del demonio entró la muerte en el mundo ...” Sabiduría

Dios no nos abandonó, El vino a rescatarnos. Jesús vino a ser uno con nosotros. El entró en nuestra miseria. Con Su amor y sabiduría El reabrió las puertas de la vida eterna para todos nosotros.

“Nuestro Señor Jesucristo se hizo pobre por ustedes ... para que ustedes se hicieran ricos con Su pobreza ...” 2 Corintios

“Jesucristo, nuestro Salvador ... ha vencido la muerte y ha hecho resplandecer la vida por medio del Evangelio ...” 2 Timoteo

Nuestro Señor Jesucristo nos llama como llamó a la niña en el Evangelio.

“Oyeme ... niña ... levántate! ...” Marcos

El nos llama a la Victoria sobre todo tipo de muerte, y eventualmente nos llama a la vida eterna.

PROTEGIENDO LOS NIÑOS

SEGURIDAD TRIUNFA SOBRE BUENOS MODALES

Como padres de familia y cuidadores de niños, nosotros les enseñamos a los niños a decir “por favor” y “gracias”, a jugar con amabilidad, y a respetar a los adultos. También es muy importante recalcar la importancia de la seguridad, y dejar que los niños sepan que está bien ser descortés si ellos se sienten amenazados o temerosos. Los niños deben saber que está bien decir “NO” si alguien les está pidiendo hacer algo con lo cual ellos no se sienten cómodos, y que poner fronteras diciendo cosas como, “No me toque allí”, o “Eso no me gusta”, no es malcriadeza, sino que es necesario para la seguridad del niño.

PRIMER VIERNES

El Viernes que viene, 6 de julio es el Primer Viernes del mes. Nuestra Misa será a las 8:15 am, seguida por la Exposición del Santísimo hasta la medianoche, 12am. Las confesiones serán de 7pm hasta la medianoche.

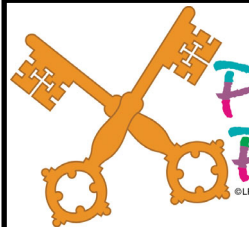

Te invitamos a pasar un tiempo acompañando a Jesús Sacramentado.

Mis hermanos y mis hermanas,

La historia que nos narra el evangelio de hoy tiene un detalle impresionante. Impresionó a Jesús, a los apóstoles, sobre todo impresionó a una mujer. Es un milagro que obró Cristo. Que como quien dice, de paso, mientras iba de camino para dar la vida a la hija de Jairo. Una mujer enferma pensó que con sólo tocar el vestido de Jesús se curaría. Lo tocó y quedó sana. El detalle que impresiona es que Jesús sintió aquel toque de la mano de esa mujer. Mucha gente rodeaba a Jesús, muchos lo tocaban con curiosidad, algunos lo tocaban inadvertidamente. Pero aquella mujer tocó a Jesús con fe. Jesús se dejó tocar hace más de veinte siglos, pero hoy en día continúa dejándose tocar por muchos.

Bendiciones, Diácono Carlos

Domingo,
1 de julio

El próximo domingo nuestra parroquia participará en la colecta que ayuda al Papa Francisco con los fondos que necesita para llevar a cabo sus obras de caridad alrededor del mundo. Los ingresos benefician a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en los márgenes de la sociedad, incluidas a las víctimas de la guerra, opresión y desastres.

Únete a nuestro Santo Padre como testigo de la caridad a los que sufren. Gracias por su generosidad. Los sobres están en las puertas.
