Take advantage of TikTok's parental controls

The social media site TikTok has exploded in popularity during the coronavirus pandemic, with children and adults using it to connect and pass time while in quarantine. Unfortunately, apps like TikTok are often targeted by predators as easy ways to get in touch with vulnerable children. TikTok has "Family Pairing" capabilities, which allow parents to set restrictions on their children's usage. It is also important to have ongoing, open discussions with your children about how they use social media, who they "talk" to and what they share. For more information about TikTok's parental controls, visit https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Today's first reading, psalm, and Gospel concentrate heavily on vineyards. For those of us who don't drink wine or have never set foot in a vineyard, these scriptures may seem inaccessible. But if we consider the tremendous importance of wine to the ancient world, we hear the scriptures asking us to make a life-or-death decision. Choosing death means forsaking our relationship with God and taking upon ourselves all the anxiety of faithlessness. Choosing life means paying attention to the kingdom of God on earth, striving to pursue "whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious." Today's vineyard metaphors invite us to identify our highest priority in life and tend to it. If we ask, God will help us order our lives correctly so we are free to cultivate our vineyards in love.

CONNECTED TO TRADITION

The Church presents today's Old Testament and Gospel readings together, as a pair. We delight in the symmetry between the two passages. Jesus, who is the Word of God, knows the Hebrew scriptures by heart and intends for his parable to echo Isaiah. As Jesus begins speaking, he summons the words of Isaiah, knowing his learned audience of chief priests and elders will feel comfortable with a familiar scripture passage. These scholars recognize immediately that Jesus is referring to a prophetic passage about sin, about the chosen people's tendency to turn away from God and grow "wild."

AMAZED BY INNOVATION

What Jesus does next surprises his audience. He adds a new twist to Isaiah's well-known words, adding a new character, the landowner's very own son. Adding this innovation shows that Jesus confirms the prophet's warning—that God longs for "his cherished plant" to grow according to the divine plan. The narrative twist also allows Jesus to reveal the fullness of God's plan in a way his audience can understand. Like a master teacher, Jesus respects the knowledge and faithfulness of the chief priests and elders, and then builds on what they know. By adding the landowner's son to the parable of the vineyard, Jesus gently expresses his own mission as the Son of God. Matthew's Gospel often depicts the chief priests and elders as oppositional; they worry that Jesus will abolish the law and foment rebellion. As the Lord said earlier in Matthew's Gospel, however, "Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill" (Matthew 5:17). Jesus' audience is skeptical about him, horrified at the thought of a mere human being claiming that he is the Son of God. Jesus' masterful approach provides an opportunity for his audience to give him the benefit of the doubt. In this way, Jesus proposes—not imposes—his kingship, inviting us all to follow him. PROMESA DE PROTEGER — COMPROMISO PARA SANAR

Aproveche los controles parentales de TikTok

El sitio de redes sociales TikTok se ha disparado en popularidad durante la pandemia de coronavirus, con niños y adultos usándolo para conectarse y pasar el tiempo mientras están en cuarentena. Desafortunadamente, las aplicaciones como TikTok a menudo son usadas por depredadores como formas fáciles de ponerse en contacto con niños vulnerables. TikTok tiene capacidades de "emparejamiento familiar", que permiten a los padres de familia poner restricciones al uso de la aplicación por sus hijos. También es importante tener discusiones abiertas y continuas con sus hijos sobre cómo usan las redes sociales, con quién "hablan" y qué comparten. Para obtener más información sobre los controles parentales de TikTok, visite https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

La primera lectura de hoy, el salmo y el Evangelio se concentran en gran medida en los viñedos. Para aquellos de nosotros que no bebemos vino o nunca hemos puesto un pie en un viñedo, estas Escrituras pueden parecer inaccesibles. Pero si consideramos la enorme importancia del vino para el mundo antiguo, escuchamos las Escrituras que nos piden que tomemos una decisión de vida o muerte. Elegir la muerte significa abandonar nuestra relación con Dios y asumir sobre nosotros toda la ansiedad de la infiel. Elegir la vida significa prestar atención al reino de Dios en la tierra, esforzarse por perseguir "lo que sea verdad, lo que sea honorable, lo que sea justo, lo que sea puro, lo que sea hermoso, lo que sea amable". Las metáforas de viñedo de hoy nos invitan a identificar nuestra máxima prioridad en la vida y a atenderla. Si pedimos, Dios nos ayudará a ordenar nuestras vidas correctamente para que seamos libres de cultivar nuestros viñedos en el amor.

CONECTÁNDOSE A LA TRADICIÓN

La Iglesia presenta a la lectura del Antiguo Testamento y del Evangelio juntas, como un par. Nos alegramos con la simetría entre los dos pasajes. Jesús, que es la Palabra de Dios, conoce de memoria las Escrituras hebreas y pretende que su parábola haga eco a Isaías. Cuando Jesús empieza a hablar invoca las palabras de Isaías, sabiendo que su audiencia son los principales sacerdotes y ancianos que son conocedores de las Escrituras y su interpretación, estarían familiarizados con ese pasaje de las Escrituras. Por eso reconocen inmediatamente que Jesús se refería a un pasaje profético sobre el pecado, sobre la tendencia del pueblo elegido de alejarse de Dios y volverse "salvaje".

SORPRENDIÉNDOSE POR LA INNOVACIÓN

Lo que Jesús hace a continuación sorprende a su audiencia; añade un nuevo giro a las palabras muy conocidas de Isaías, añade un nuevo personaje, el propio hijo del dueño de las tierras. Al añadir esta innovación muestra que Jesús confirma la advertencia del profeta, que Dios anhela que "su preciada planta" crezca según el plan divino. El giro narrativo también permite a Jesús revelar la plenitud del plan de Dios en una forma que su audiencia pueda entender. Como un maestro, Jesús respeta el conocimiento y la fidelidad de los principales sacerdotes y ancianos, y luego construye sobre lo que saben ellos. Al añadir al hijo del dueño de las tierras a la parábola de la viña, Jesús expresa gentilmente su propia misión como el Hijo de Dios. El Evangelio de Mateo a menudo presenta como opositores a los jefes de los sacerdotes y ancianos; les preocupa que Jesús suprima la ley y fomente la rebelión. Sin embargo, en el Evangelio de Mateo, Jesús había dicho antes: "no piensen que he venido a abolir las enseñanzas de la ley y los profetas; no he venido a abolirlas, sino a llevarlas hasta sus últimas consecuencias" (Mateo 5:17). La audiencia de Jesús es escéptica acerca de él, horrorizada ante la idea de que un mero ser humano afirme que es el Hijo de Dios. El enfoque magistral de Jesús le da a su audiencia el beneficio de la duda. De esta manera, Jesús propone, no impone, su realeza, invitándonos a todos a seguirlo. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.
