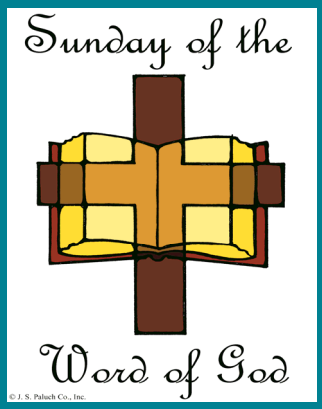
The Lord guides and saves me (Psalm 27)

El Señor me guía y me salva (Salmo 27)



To introduce the beginnings of Jesus' ministry in Matthew's Gospel today, the evangelist quotes from Isaiah 9, which is presented to us more fully in our first reading. Isaiah acknowledges the darkness of oppression from the conquest of the Galilee region by Assyria, but reminds his people of the hope God offers them. Matthew, writing in the time of the Roman Empire centuries later, points to Jesus and his proclamation of the kingdom of heaven, to overturn all forms of oppression. Power structures like Assyria or Rome rely on fear, control, and distrust to sustain themselves. But God's reign is to be saturated with God's love, freedom, and mutual trust. Jesus began by gathering a group of disciples. When Jesus similarly gathers his community of disciples in our church today, our love of each other, and our care for all others, can make this reign of God visible to all.

CALLED TO COMMUNITY

Today's Gospel from Matthew sketches the initial movements of Jesus' public ministry. The arrest of John the Baptist signals that Jesus' time has come. His first actions include the call of his first disciples, and proclaiming the reign, or kingdom, of heaven. Jesus first gathers a community, which he can gradually form to become living evidence of this coming reign. His preaching, which begins just a few verses later in the Sermon on the Mount, is not just essential guidance for each individual life, but for life within a community of his followers.

It can be very challenging for most of us, who live in a highly individualized society, to hear this story of being summoned into community, committed to learning together and from each other. Our parishes and Christian communities need to be safe places so that we can open our hearts to each other, learning the Way of Jesus, and sharing this Way with others.

UNITED IN CHRIST

In his letter to the Corinthians, Paul addresses many pastoral issues, and begins with questions of division over leadership. We hear of rival camps of loyalty for various leaders and preachers: Paul himself, Apollo, or Cephas. Paul fears that the community has lost the center of the faith, that is, Christ himself. The community is to be united in mind and purpose under Christ.

Many today experience in a very similar division. Some Christians will in effect say: "I belong to . . . (fill in the name of your favorite preacher, theologian, or leader), and those who don't are not to be trusted." Diversity of thought and background are essential to the vitality of Christian community, but here Paul describes a division that hides the message of Christ. It hides Christ's call to charity and forbearance toward all. This division hides the truth that we are all at the foot of the cross, a cross that reveals our own brokenness and our need for mercy.

Today's Readings: Is 8:23 — 9:3; Ps 27:1, 4, 13–14; 1 Cor 1:10–13, 17; Mt 4:12–23 [12–17]

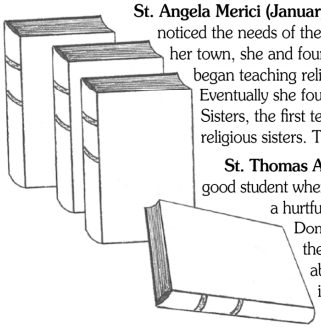
CATHOLIC CORNER

THREE TEACHING SAINTS

Saints come in all varieties. They come from different countries. They are young and old. They work in all different professions. But saints do share some things in common. This week we celebrate three saints who all came from Italy and were teachers.



St. Angela Merici (January 27) When Angela noticed the needs of the poor children in her town, she and four of her friends began teaching religion to young girls. Eventually she founded the Ursuline Sisters, the first teaching order of religious sisters. The Ursulines still teach today.

St. Thomas Aquinas (January 28) Thomas didn't seem like a good student when he was young. In fact, his classmates gave him a hurtful nickname, "The Dumb Ox." Thomas joined the Dominican order of priests and became a great writer, the author of twenty books that helped teach people about their faith. Because of his great intelligence he is known as the "Angelic Doctor" ("doctor" from the Latin docere, "to teach").

St. John Bosco (January 31) John was an unusual teacher. He very cleverly kept the interest of his students by engaging them with acrobatic tricks, tightrope walking, and juggling. His most important tool, however, was his kind treatment of his students, who were often mistreated by their employers and teachers. John founded the Society of St. Francis de Sales, whose members still work with students today.

This would be a good week to write a note of appreciation to your teachers. You can thank them for dedicating their lives to teaching and following in the footsteps of the great saints who were teachers themselves. Remember to include what you like best about your teacher and why she or he makes learning interesting and even fun.

[Jesus] went around all of Galilee . . .
curing every disease and illness among the people.
Matthew 4:23

PAPAL INTENTIONS FOR JANUARY

FOR EDUCATORS

We pray that educators may be credible witnesses, teaching fraternity rather that competition and helping the youngest and most vulnerable above all.

IMPORTANT JANUARY PRO-LIFE EVENTS

1. 9 DAYS FOR LIFE NOVENA – January 19th through January 27th
   www.respectlife.org/9-days-for-life

9 Days for Life is a novena for the protection of human life. Each day's intention is accompanied by a short reflection and suggested actions to help build a culture of life.

2. DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE LEGAL PROTECTION OF UNBORN CHILDREN— January 22 www.respectlife.org/january-22

The over 60 million abortions since the 1973 decisions of Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton reflect with heartbreaking magnitude what Pope Francis means by a "throwaway culture." However, we have great trust in God's providence. We are reminded time and again in Scripture to seek the Lord's help, and as people of faith, we believe that our prayers are heard.

And while, on June 24, 2022, the Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization decision overturned Roe v. Wade, right now state and federal laws, in many instances, are still hostile to preborn children. So, great prayer and advocacy is still very needed.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 373, designates January 22 as a particular day of prayer and penance, called the "Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children": "In all the Dioceses of the United States of America, January 22 (or January 23, when January 22 falls on a Sunday) shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion."

Para introducir los inicios del ministerio de Jesús en el Evangelio de Mateo de hoy, el evangelista cita el pasaje de Isaías 9, que se nos presenta con más detalle en nuestra primera lectura. Isaías reconoce las tinieblas de la opresión por la conquista de la región de Galilea por parte de Asiria, pero recuerda a su pueblo la esperanza que Dios le ofrece. Mateo, escribiendo en tiempos del Imperio Romano, siglos después, señala a Jesús y su proclamación del reino de los cielos, para derribar toda forma de opresión. Las estructuras de poder como Asiria o Roma se basan en el miedo, el control y la desconfianza para sostenerse. Pero el reino de Dios debe estar saturado del amor de Dios, la libertad y la confianza mutua. Jesús comenzó reuniendo a un grupo de discípulos. Cuando Jesús reúna a su comunidad de discípulos de forma similar en nuestra iglesia de hoy, nuestro amor mutuo y nuestra atención a todos los demás pueden hacer que este reino de Dios sea visible para todos.

LLAMADO A LA COMUNIDAD

El Evangelio de hoy de Mateo esboza los movimientos iniciales del ministerio público de Jesús. La detención de Juan el Bautista indica que ha llegado la hora de Jesús. Sus primeras acciones incluyen la llamada de sus primeros discípulos y la proclamación del reino de los cielos. Jesús reúne primero una comunidad, a la que puede formar gradualmente para que se convierta en una prueba viviente de este reino venidero. Su predicación, que comienza unos versículos más tarde en el Sermón de la Montaña, no es sólo una guía esencial para la vida de cada individuo, sino para la vida dentro de una comunidad de sus seguidores.

Para la mayoría de nosotros, que vivimos en una sociedad altamente individualizada, puede resultar muy desafiante escuchar esta historia de ser convocados en comunidad, comprometidos a aprender juntos y unos de otros. Nuestras parroquias y comunidades cristianas tienen que ser lugares seguros para que podamos abrir nuestros corazones a los demás, aprendiendo el Camino de Jesús, y compartiendo este Camino con los demás.

UNIDOS EN CRISTO

En su carta a los Corintios, Pablo aborda muchos temas pastorales, y comienza con cuestiones de división sobre el liderazgo. Oímos hablar de campos rivales de lealtad para varios líderes y predicadores: Pablo mismo, Apolo o Cefas. Pablo teme que la comunidad haya perdido el centro de la fe, es decir, el propio Cristo. La comunidad debe estar unida en mente y propósito bajo Cristo.

Muchos experimentan hoy en día una división muy similar. Algunos cristianos dicen en efecto: "Yo pertenezco a… (ponga el nombre de su predicador, teólogo o líder favorito), y los que no lo hacen no son de fiar". La diversidad de pensamiento y antecedentes es esencial para la vitalidad de la comunidad cristiana, pero aquí Pablo describe una división que oculta el mensaje de Cristo. Oculta la llamada de Cristo a la caridad y a la tolerancia hacia todos. Esta división oculta la verdad de que todos estamos al pie de la cruz, una cruz que revela nuestro propio quebranto y nuestra necesidad de misericordia.

Life After Loss

10 week group sessions, in English, begin Wednesday, February 15, 2023

This psalm reassures us all that our God is with us in times of Joy and especially in times of sorrow. Grief is a normal deep sorrow connected to a loss of a loved one.
